From the Pastor ~

Today is the first Sunday of Lent. We began the season of Lent on Wednesday with the distribution of ashes. Ashes remind us that we are dust and to dust we shall return. They call us as do the prophets of the Bible to repent and believe in the Gospel.

For many Catholics, the first thought that Lent brings to mind is giving something up. In my childhood, the standard was to give up candy, a discipline that found suitable reward in the baskets of sugary treats we received on Easter. Some of us even added to the Easter surplus by saving candy all through Lent, stockpiling what we would have eaten had we not promised to give it up.

Some years ago a friend of mine told me that he had urged his children to move beyond giving up candy to giving up some habit of sin that marked their lives. About halfway through Lent he asked the children how they were doing with their Lenten promise. One of his young sons had promised to give up fighting with his brothers and sisters during Lent. When his father asked him how it was going, the boy replied, "I'm doing pretty good, Dad—but boy, I can't wait until Easter!"

That response indicates that this boy had only partly understood the purpose of Lenten "giving up." Lent is about conversion, turning our lives more completely over to Christ and His way of life. That always involves giving up sin in some form. The goal is not just to abstain from sin for the duration of Lent, but to root sin out of our lives forever. Conversion means leaving behind an old way of living and acting in order to embrace new life in Christ. For catechumens, Lent is a period intended to bring their initial conversion to completion.

Please join us on Fridays at 7:00 PM for the Stations of the Cross. If you have not prayed the stations in some time, come and pray with us and rediscover this powerful prayer and devotion to our Blessed Lord's passion, and how the passion of Christ calls us to grow in holiness and charity.

In Christ,
 Fr. Stephen M. Gemme

*Prayer of Thanksgiving
After Eucharistic Adoration
By Vandy Brennan Nies*

Thank You, Lord, for meeting me in the silence. What a gift this is. What a gift you are! Thank you, Jesus, for staying with us even though your mission was complete. Thank you for our time together. It truly gets no better than this, Jesus.

This is a place to go when there's no place to go. When I don't know where to turn, I can turn to you, knowing you will be here. When I don't know what to do, I can listen, knowing you'll speak to my heart. When I can't find an answer, you have one all ready for the asking. When no one else cares, you do. When I'm so happy I could burst, you'll share the joy with me. When I fall, you'll pick me up. If I need forgiveness, you're just the person to take care of that. There is nothing~ absolutely nothing~ I can't bring in here to share with you. It doesn't make any difference what's going on in my life, Lord. You are here in the silence! And, I am welcome any time, 60/60/24/7/365.

You being God and everything, this could be an austere experience. After all, this is a private audience with the God of the universe and the Savior of my soul. But you make it so unthreatening. I'm never intimidated when I come here. That's because your words two thousand years ago were just the right ones to create calm in my heart today. How incredibly awesome is that!

I've enjoyed this time with you, Lord. Let's do it again real soon. I love you, Jesus.

Amen

Natural Family Planning Classes

You are invited to attend a series of three classes spaced one month apart in order to learn Natural Family Planning. These classes are taught by the Couple to Couple League. This method is safe, effective, and morally acceptable. They will be held at St. Brendan's Parish Hall in Bellingham. The first class is scheduled for Saturday, March 10th from 7:30-9:30pm. Other class dates are April 14th & May 12th.

If you have further questions please call Mark and Maureen at 508-634-3865. You may register online at ccli.org.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

We invite you to come and spend time with our Lord Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Our chapel is open 24 hours - 7 days a week. If you would like to sign up for a particular hour, please call the parish office at 508-393-2838.

Hours that need to be filled by an adorer

- Monday -
- Tuesday - 1pm, 4pm
- Wednesday - 8am, 10am, 3pm, 4pm, 5pm
- Thursday - 3pm
- Friday - 8am, 9am, 4pm
- Saturday & Sunday - All are welcome at anytime

During Eucharistic Adoration and through our prayers, we watch and wait; we remain silent in His presence and open ourselves to His graces which flow from the Eucharist. Intimacy with the Lord in Eucharistic Adoration can deepen our awareness of just how much God loves us and how we respond to that love.

"Let this meeting with Jesus be a time of healing in mind, body, spirit and heart."

Guidelines for Fast & Abstinence

Lenten fast and abstinence regulations for the Diocese of Worcester are as follows:

Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics fourteen (14) years of age and older on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Fasting is to be observed by all Catholics who are eighteen (18) years of age but not yet fifty-nine (59) years of age on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Those who are bound to fast may take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted. Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed Lenten penitential practices.

Understanding Depression: Awareness, Strength, Healing

Time: 10:00 AM - 5:00 PM (includes lunch)

Presenter: Mary Lou Costanzo Retreat Offering: $45.00

It is hoped that participants will leave the day feeling that they have some understanding of the causes of depression, the symptoms of depression, and what to do when or if it occurs.

Wednesday, March 14

Day Retreat for Seniors: Celebrating Aging

Time: 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM

Presenter: Sr. Colette Hanlon, S.C. Retreat Offering: $35.00

It is so easy to gripe and complain about getting older, but once in a while it is refreshing to use our memories to recall the blessings of aging. We "are the music while the music lasts," so this morning we will celebrate the moments we've had and are having, so we can anticipate the future with hope and humor. The day will include the presentation, lunch and Mass.

Wednesday, March 14

Women's Evening Retreat: Gathering in Gratitude

Time: 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM

Retreat Offering: $35.00

This retreat will give women of all ages and backgrounds an opportunity to reflect on how we can grow in gratefulness no matter what is going on in our lives. Gathering together in prayerful reflection will offer opportunities for input and discussion on increasing our capacity for living in an attitude of gratitude. The evening begins with a buffet dinner from 6 to 7pm

Friday, March 16 - Sunday, March 18, 2012

Women's Retreat: The Courage to Hope: Finding God in all Things

Retreat Offering: $250.00 - $275.00

A retreat is a great opportunity to be with other women and to rediscover the presence of God in your life. Retreat begins on Friday evening with a buffet dinner from 6:00-8:00pm and ends on Sunday around noon.

Saturday, March 24

The Spiritual Practice of Knitting

Time: 10:00 AM - 5:00 PM (includes lunch)

Presenter: Rachel Valente Retreat Offering: $45.00

We will begin by exploring our personal histories with knitting and spend time sharing in small groups the connections that participants have made through knitting. Next there will be time for journaling with an option to write a blessing for someone whom you have connected to through knitting in the past. We will conclude our day together with a prayer service in the chapel where we will bless both the hands of the knitters and their work.

Pope creates 22 new cardinals, including three from US, Canada

By Cindy Wooden, Catholic News Service

VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- Pope Benedict XVI created 22 new cardinals from 13 countries -- including three from the United States and Canada -- placing red hats on their heads and calling them to lives of even greater love and service to the church.

The churchmen who joined the College of Cardinals Feb. 18 included Cardinals Timothy M. Dolan of New York; Edwin F. O'Brien, grand master of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulcher of Jerusalem and former archbishop of Baltimore, and Thomas C. Collins of Toronto.

In their first official act in their new role, the new cardinals were asked to join their peers in giving the pope their opinion, in writing, on the canonization of seven new saints, including Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, an American Indian, and Blessed Marianne Cope of Molokai, Hawaii.

The pope announced at the consistory that the canonization ceremony would be celebrated Oct. 21 at the Vatican. St. Peter's Basilica was filled to overflowing for the ceremony, and several thousand people sat in a sunny St. Peter's Square watching on large video screens. Choirs from New York and from several Italian dioceses provided music for the service.

At the end of the ceremony, the College of Cardinals had 213 members, 125 of whom were under the age of 80 and, therefore, eligible to vote in a conclave to elect a new pope.

The consistory took the form of a prayer service. After the Gospel reading, in what the Vatican described as an allocution, not a homily, the pope told the cardinals that love and service, not an air of greatness, are to mark their lives as cardinals.

"Dominion and service, egoism and altruism, possession and gift, self-interest and gratuitousness: These profoundly contrasting approaches confront each other in every age and place," Pope Benedict said, but the cardinals must model their lives on that of Jesus, loving others to the point of giving up his life for them.

In all things, Pope Benedict said, "the new cardinals are entrusted with the service of love: love for God, love for his church, an absolute and unconditional love for his brothers and sisters, even unto shedding their blood, if necessary," a fact underlined by the red color of the biretta -- a three-cornered hat -- and the red cardinal's robes.

"He is servant inasmuch as he welcomes within himself the fate of the suffering and sin of all humanity. His service is realized in total faithfulness and complete responsibility toward mankind," the pope said.

"The free acceptance of his violent death becomes the price of freedom for many," he told the new cardinals, praying that "Christ's total gift of self on the cross" would be "the foundation, stimulus and strength" of their faith and that it would be reflected in their love and charity toward others.

During the ceremony, Pope Benedict placed rings on the fingers of the 22 new cardinals and assigned them a "titular church" in Rome, making them full members of the Rome clergy and closer collaborators of the pope in governing the universal church.

Cardinal O'Brien's titular church is the historic Church of St. Sebastian on the Palatine Hill. Cardinal Collins was assigned the Church of St. Patrick in the Via Veneto neighborhood, where an English-speaking congregation worships; and Cardinal Dolan became the titular cardinal of the Church of Our Lady of Guadalupe in the Monte Mario neighborhood.

The new cardinals, the pope said, "will be called to consider and evaluate the events, the problems and the pastoral criteria which concern the mission of the entire church."

The pope asked the new cardinals "to serve the church with love and vigor, with the transparency and wisdom of teachers, with the energy and strength of shepherds, with the fidelity and courage of martyrs."

The Bible reading at the service was taken from the Gospel of Mark and recounted how the disciples were tempted by the idea of honor, but Jesus told them that greatness means becoming the servant of all.

"Serving God and others, self-giving: This is the logic which authentic faith imparts and develops in our daily lives and which is not the type of power and glory which belongs to this world," the pope told them.

Welcome to St. Bernadette Parish

Thank you for joining us in the celebration of the Mass! It is our sincere wish to welcome you to our parish. If you are new to our parish or to the Catholic faith, we are honored to have you with us. Registration packets are available in the Gathering Space of the Church and at the Pastoral Center Office or by calling 508-393-2838. Please feel free to ask any questions about our Church.

Frequently, those seeking to celebrate Marriage, Baptism or serve as sponsors for Confirmation or Baptism request a letter stating that they are active parishioners. To receive such a letter one must be registered in the parish, attend Mass regularly and be committed to stewardship of time, talent & treasure. One means of verifying participation is through the use of parish offertory envelopes. If you choose not to participate in the support of the parish, or are unable to contribute at this time, please note your prayerful support on your envelope and place it in the weekly offertory. We will then be aware of your continued participation, and you will not be noted as "inactive" on our roster. To request envelopes, contact the parish office at 508-393-2838.
